

Join Us for the Annual 2024 ANTHC CHAP Forum!

We are excited to announce the annual 2024 Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium (ANTHC) Community Health Aide Program (CHAP) Forum, the premier statewide gathering for Community Health Aides/Practitioners. This year's forum will be held over four dynamic days, offering an unparalleled opportunity for professional growth, networking, and recognition.

Event Highlights:

-  November 4 - 7, 2024, beginning 8:00 am daily
-  William A. Egan Civic & Convention Center
555 West 5th Avenue, Room 9-10, Anchorage, AK

Why Attend?

- Earn Up to 24 Hours of Continuing Education: Expand your knowledge and skills across a broad array of the CHA/Ps scope of medical practice.
- Engage with Experts: Learn from leading health professionals and gain insights into the latest advancements in community health.
- Network with Peers: Connect with fellow CHA/Ps from across the state, share experiences, and build lasting professional relationships.
- Continental breakfast will be served daily at 7:45 am. Lunch on your own Monday, Tuesday and Thursday 11:30 am – 1:00 pm.

Special Event:

- Integrated Health Aide Forum Awards Ceremony: On the third day, we will honor our Shining Stars, exceptional CHA/Ps who have demonstrated outstanding dedication and service. Join us in celebrating their achievements and contributions to community health. Plated lunch will be served.

Don't miss this incredible opportunity to advance your career and celebrate the vital work of Community Health Aides/Practitioners across Alaska.
